

Jewish Studies at the University of Houston presents a

Public Lecture
by

Matt
Goldish

Dr. Goldish is the director of the Mellon Center for Jewish Studies and the author of Judaism in the Theology of Sir Isaac Newton (2010), and Jewish Questions: Responsa on Sephardic Life in the Early Modern Period (2008).

The Jewish Messiah

Concepts and Candidates over the Millennia

Thursday, March 22, at 7 p.m.

Congregation Beth Yeshurun

4525 Beechnut Street Houston

Sponsored by the El Paso Corporation Lecture Series, Houston Hillel, Jewish Studies, the Honors College, the Department of Comparative Cultural Studies, and the Department of Modern and Classical Languages

For more information, contact Dr. Marie-Theresa Hernández, Chair, UH Jewish Studies Initiative, at mthdz@uh.edu or 713 743-3074