

Environmental Health & Safety

Division of Administration
& Finance

BIOSAFETY AND BIOSECURITY MONTH

Biosafety is a critical component of the research community at the University of Houston. Every October the University's Biosafety Office observes the American Biological Safety Association International's Biosafety and Biosecurity month as a time to focus on several topics relating to biosafety on campus.

This event is held at various campus locations allowing faculty, staff and students the opportunity to engage in dialogue with biosafety professionals.

Please scan the QR code to learn more about UH Biosafety.

Learn More:

<https://www.uh.edu/ehs/labs/biosafety/>