

UNIVERSITY OF HOUSTON GLOBAL FACULTY INSTITUTE

The Global Faculty Institute is a 7-session professional development program during the spring semester to provide faculty with the training, mentorship, and support to design an implementable global learning initiative.

This funded program includes a capstone site visit to Mexico City, guidance from experienced faculty mentors, and concludes with a global initiative showcase.

3 PROGRAM TRACKS:

Learning Abroad
Virtual Exchange/COIL
Curriculum Internationalization

PROGRAM OVERVIEW:

Two-day, in-person opening retreat
Six biweekly training and project-design sessions
Faculty mentor consultations
Guided proposal development
Closing project showcase

FACULTY BENEFITS:

$1,000 participation stipend
$2,000 in initiative implementation funding
Opportunity to participate in a funded international capstone

Ideal Applicants

Tenure-track & promotion eligible faculty with 0-3 years of global initiatives experience Faculty ready to develop and implement a global program at UH
All faculty experience levels welcome

Program Dates

January 12, 13 - Retreat
Biweekly starting January 28 for 6 weeks
Closing Project Showcase April 22
International Capstone May 18-22

Application Deadline October 15th

www.uh.edu/global | uhglobal@uh.edu

Access the application bit.ly/UHGFApp

Institute for Global Engagement
UNIVERSITY OF HOUSTON