

University of Houston Tilman J. Fertitta Family College of Medicine
Academic Material Release Form

The purpose of this release is to authorize the University of Houston Tilman J. Fertitta Family College of Medicine (hereafter “Fertitta College of Medicine”) and its designated representatives to use educational materials I created and shared during a presentation or learning activity held at the Fertitta College of Medicine (“Materials”).

I am delivering an educational session as part of a Fertitta College of Medicine continuing medical education program designed to enhance the learning experience for physicians, residents, medical students, and other health care professionals affiliated with the college. As part of this activity, I may use original or previously prepared educational content. I grant Fertitta College of Medicine permission to utilize these Materials, which may include posting them to internal academic platforms or distributing copies to relevant learners and professionals. This use is strictly for academic and non-commercial purposes in support of the college’s educational mission.

I affirm that I am the rightful owner of the Materials and that their use does not violate any copyright protections. Fertitta College of Medicine understands and acknowledges that I retain full ownership and copyright of the Materials. This release grants the college a non-exclusive, irrevocable license to use the Materials solely for educational purposes.

By completing and signing below, I confirm my agreement with the terms outlined above.
