

CAN YOU SWIM WITH THE SHARKS?

Humana Institute is pleased to announce that applications are now open for the 2026 Summer Health Research Program—a short-term, intensive research experience designed to equip graduate students with practical skills for real-world health challenges.

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

JUNE 8 - JUNE 25, 2026

The Summer Health Research Program offers an interprofessional, interdisciplinary learning environment where participants engage in applied research and implementation-focused projects addressing current public health and health systems issues.

$2,000
STIPEND

PARTICIPANTS WILL GAIN

- Hands-on experience with real-world health programs
- Training in implementation science, public health practice, and applied research
- Exposure to health data and analytics
- Skills directly applicable to careers in public health, research, and health systems
- Opportunities to collaborate across disciplines and professions

WHO SHOULD APPLY?

GRADUATE STUDENTS INTERESTED IN:

- Public health
- Health policy and systems
- Data and analytics
- Implementation science
- Community and population health

PARTICIPANTS WILL INTERFACE WITH FACULTY AND PROFESSIONALS FROM:

- University of Houston
- Houston Health Department
- Humana
- Texas Southern University

REAL SKILLS

REAL PROGRAMS

REAL IMPACT

This program is designed to bridge theory and practice, preparing students to translate research into action in diverse health settings.

Qualtrics.com

Apply by March 13, 2026

Questions?

humana-institute@uh.edu