ACADEMIC SERVICE AND LEADERSHIP ACTIVITIES

Graduate College of Social Work Service and Leadership

Leadership

- 2020-present Associate Dean for Academic Affairs
- Lead all facets of the GCSW MSW program, including recruitment, admissions, student affairs, practicum education, curriculum, instruction, and operations of face-to-face, hybrid, and online degree programs; five dual degree programs (MSW/MPP, MSW/JD, MSW/MBA, MSW/MPH, MSW/PhD); and the undergraduate Nonprofit Leadership Alliance program
 - Responsible for all preparations for College reaffirmation self study under CSWE’s 2022 Education Policy and Standards
 - Facilitate planning and implementation of major curricular changes, including the creation of Focused Learning Opportunities, substantial changes to the core Confronting Oppression and Injustice course, restructuring and redesign of the Clinical concentration curriculum
 - Facilitated transformation of the practicum education office from a staff-based model to a faculty-based model to increase College capacity to advance our commitment to anti-racism in practicum education; resulted in the addition of four new non-tenure-track faculty positions to the College
 - Secured new non-College funding to build College capacity to support MSW education, including a new staff position dedicated to supporting inclusive teaching and learning and expansion of the College’s IT infrastructure
 - Restructured academic staffing to strengthen supports for students and faculty, including new positions focused on developing innovative academic programs and partnerships and on strengthening infrastructural support for full-time and adjunct faculty; initiated and secured a 13% increase in adjunct faculty pay, the first such salary increase in six years
 - Mentored Student Affairs office in reviewing admissions processes and data through a racial justice lens, leading to extensive revision of MSW admissions policies and rubrics
 - Developed structural changes to MSW program to respond to increasing challenges related to education affordability and accessibility
 - Led programmatic decision-making, adjustments, and communications in response to crises including COVID and multiple natural disasters
 - Member of Dean’s senior leadership team, supporting wide-ranging aspects of College administration; this included demonstrating crisis leadership in the aftermath of an unplanned College leadership change, as the senior leadership team led all operations of the College for multiple months. Additional management and operational responsibilities include supervising the College’s IT, Advancement, and Alumni and Career Relations staff and working directly with university leadership.
- 2020-present; Chair, Curriculum Committee; member, 2010-present
- 2011-2016
- Lead core College committee responsible for MSW curriculum planning and improvements; key accomplishments include major revisions to the College’s core Confronting Oppression and Injustice course, expansion of the Macro curriculum, and a full restructuring of the Clinical curriculum
 - Accomplished changes to course offerings and degree plans, revised course objectives to meet accreditation standards and changing practice needs, developed new student policies, implemented structure and content requirements to support new elective Focused Learning Opportunities

- 2012-present Created and lead multiple College initiatives to strengthen student learning around policy and political social work, including:
- Political Social Work Focused Learning Opportunity (2020-present) – created a new educational focus to support holistic political social work learning and mentorship for MSW students interested in deeper exploration of political social work practice
 - GCSW Voter Engagement and Political Justice Initiative (2018-present) – sought and received external funding to create a program-wide initiative to teach students about political justice, to train students to serve as volunteer deputy voter registrars, and to encourage student involvement in non-partisan voter registration and GOTV efforts with nonprofit partners working alongside Houston-area communities of color
 - Houston Policy Practice Placement Initiative (2016-present) – sought and received external funding to create a generalist practicum placement program with advocacy organizations and policymakers serving Houston-area communities of color; have secured funding annually to support its continuation
 - MSW-MPP Dual Degree (2014-present) – developed and implemented a policy-focused dual degree, the first MSW/MPP offered in Texas, in conjunction with the UH Hobby School for Public Affairs; the dual degree was approved by the university in Fall 2015
 - GCSW Policy Insider Series (2014-present) – developed a regular policy seminar series led by a newly-created student Policy Insider Advisory Committee to increase student exposure to key policy issues as part of implicit curriculum
- 2010-present Director, Austin Legislative Internship Program
- Direct the College’s unique competitive biennial legislative social work internship; hold sole responsibility for program operations, including publicizing the program, recruiting and interviewing students, selecting practicum instructors, working with legislators to secure placements
 - Mentor student interns who serve as staff at the Texas Legislature, supporting 83 students through this program since 2011
 - Work closely with individual legislators and staff for the Texas Legislative Study Group, the Mexican-American Legislative Caucus, and the University of Houston Office of Governmental Relations to create meaningful policy learning opportunities
 - Expand and strengthen the program model through enhanced program coursework and student preparation, institutionalizing alumni participation as mentors and supporting development of focused practicum-related assessments of interns’ learning outcomes
 - Engage in panel discussions and national presentations to share lessons learned with other social work programs seeking to develop their own legislative internship programs
 - Work with development staff and legislators to develop and implement fundraising events
 - Built a public-facing blog where students share their experiences and learning with a broader social work audience (<https://gcswlegislativeinterns.wordpress.com>); worked with the national Social Justice Solutions website to syndicate this blog beginning in 2019
- 2021-2022 GCSW Racial Justice Workgroup Member
- Selected by the Dean as one of five faculty members to facilitate an extensive community-engaged process to develop a set of Racial Justice Principles to guide the College’s work
 - Co-facilitated engagement opportunities with full-time and adjunct faculty, staff, students, practicum instructors, and alumni to seek out essential community input and visioning around what a racially just college of social work would look like
 - Co-facilitated the development and sharing of seven Racial Justice Principles, formally adopted by the College in 2022
- 2017-2020 Chair, Macro Concentration Committee; member, 2009-2020; 2022-2023
- Led a team of faculty in preparing for College accreditation self study, including developing new educational competencies for one of two advanced concentrations, mapping the concentration curriculum, and creating a new assessment tool to measure student competency prior to graduation

- Added two new courses to the Macro concentration; continually revised other concentration courses to respond to changing practice community and student needs and increase alignment with College vision
- Transitioned concentration curriculum to develop new online Macro degree option; facilitated new degree plan rollout and course conversions

- 2014-2017 Curriculum Specialization Coordinator
- Administrative appointment to implement new changes to the College's specializations
 - Developed and implemented plans to roll out new structure and content to internal and external audiences, created new application and approval processes, advised students, and collected and analyzed student data
- 2010-2017 Coordinator, Political Social Work Specialization Workgroup
- Led faculty workgroup to oversee optional curriculum specialization
- 2015-2016 Created, planned, and hosted a binational conference, Children Displaced Across Borders: Bridging Policy, Practice, and Disciplinary Approaches to Further Human Rights, as part of a partnership between the University of Houston and the Wales Observatory for the Rights of Children and Young People at Swansea University.
