

Job Title	Children's Services Clinician
Employer/ Agency	Ethos Wellness - Woodway
Job Description	Ethos Wellness - Woodway has openings in our Children's Services Program, which is a highly regarded program. The program consists primarily of outpatient services as well as play groups and DBT-C groups. Dialectical Behavior Therapy (DBT) is used as a foundation for children following play group therapy, which is overlaid with a variety of treatment modalities, psychoeducation, skills, experiential exercises and recovery concepts. Its end goal is to treat underlying core issues for long-term healing and maximize client's learning and practice of invaluable life skills. Highlights of Employment: • Ongoing coaching and mentoring for both clinical and professional development, including several hours of free and exclusive CEU opportunities. • Successful marketing provided by the agency; constant flow of new child clients seeking both individual and family psychotherapy. • Heart-centered, relational culture; loads of support, encouragement and compassion for this challenging and meaningful work • Well-run agency with strong leadership and detailed policies and procedures.
Qualifications	• Licensed to provide mental health treatment in the state of Texas • Strong clinical background with solid experience in a psychotherapy setting as well as play therapy • Highly organized, self-motivated, collaborative, curious, and proactive • Responsive to a fast-paced environment • Fully licensed RPT experience preferred • Submit to a background check if hired
Salary/Hours	• Afternoon and evening work required on 4 days until 6:30pm • Excellent rates for Contract Therapists • Contract rate commensurate with experience

Application Method	Interested applicants should submit a resume and a thoughtful cover letter to the email address above. Resumes should reflect your full clinical training, work, and educational background. Cover letters should be concise, covering applicant's clinical orientation, interest and experience in counseling, and should give an overall sense of who the applicant is and how they will show up as an employee and as a therapist. We really do read your letters - sometimes the cover letter matters more than the resume!
Opening Date	Immediately
