

Job Title	LMSW, LPC-A, LMFT under Supervision
Employer/ Agency	Triad Counseling
Job Description	Are you an LMSW looking to grow your clinical skills and begin building the foundation for your own private practice? This opportunity allows you to work under the supervision of an experienced practitioner while developing the confidence, structure, and clientele you'll take with you as you step into full independence. What You'll Gain: • ✓ Supervision and mentorship focused on sharpening your therapeutic skills • ✓ Hands-on guidance in how to start, structure, and grow a private practice • ✓ Billing services and EHR system covered by Triad Counseling • ✓ Supportive, collaborative environment — without micromanagement • ✓ Freedom to build your own caseload, referral streams, and branding • ✓ Ability to take all your clients with you when you launch your own practice What You'll Be Responsible For: • Developing and managing your own caseload • Marketing yourself and generating referrals • Administrative tasks related to your clients • Commitment to ethical, client-centered clinical work Ideal Candidate: • LMSW in Texas seeking required supervision hours • Motivated, organized, and ready to grow • Passionate about private practice work • Values autonomy and mentorship • Interested in long-term practice development What Makes This Different: This isn't just a job — it's a launchpad. You're not "working for me"; you're working with me. I provide supervision, guidance, and the roadmap — while Triad Counseling covers your billing and EHR system. You build the practice that will one day become fully your own. If you're ready to invest in your future, learn the business side of therapy, and grow your expertise with support, I'd love to connect.
