

Job Title	Victim Specialist (Various Locations Available)
Employer/ Agency	FBI
Job Description	The Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) is seeking to hire Victim Specialists. You may be selected and considered for our current Victim Specialist and Indian Country Victim Specialist vacancies. Relocation may be required. Victim Specialists assist people who have suffered direct physical, emotional, or financial harm as a result of being identified as a victim of a federal crime. Victim Specialists provide services in a wide range of violations that include but are not exclusive to violent, civil rights, cyber and white-collar crime. Victim Specialists provide information on victimization, crime prevention, legal rights and protections, the criminal justice process, and referrals for services. The services provided can include crisis intervention directed toward deescalating a situation, establishing physical and emotional safety, providing concrete/basic needs assessments, identifying emergency needs, and empowering the victim's ability to make choices regarding possible courses of action. • Provides direct assistance services to persons who have suffered direct physical, emotional, or financial harm as a result of a violent crime. • Contacts victims, conducts needs assessments and develops an action plan for immediate and on-going services as indicated by the needs assessment. • Provides crisis intervention services, which are directed toward de-escalating a situation, establishes physical and emotional safety, and provides concrete/basic needs services, emergency needs and reinforcing the victim's ability to make choices regarding possible courses of action. • Ensures FBI Adherence to the Attorney General Guidelines and establishment and adoption of best practices for victim assistance. • Maintains involvement either through outreach or membership on multidisciplinary teams, with local agencies that provide services to federal crime victims. • Develops and implements trainings and presentations related to victim concerns and coordination with other federal, state, local, tribal and territorial law enforcement agencies, health, social services, schools, and advocacy organizations.
Qualifications	Must be a U.S. citizen Must have (or be able to obtain) a valid driver's license Must be able to obtain a Top Secret-SCI clearance Travel will be required for victim assistance, special deployment, and/or conferences/training Bachelor's degree (or higher) in behavioral or social science, or a discipline related to the victim assistance field, including but not limited to: Criminal Justice, Social Work, Counseling, Human Services, Psychology, Sociology, Victimology, Gender and Women Studies.

	or Combination of education and experience that provided the applicant with knowledge of one or more of the behavioral or social sciences equivalent to a major in the field. or Four years of appropriate experience that demonstrated that the applicant has acquired one or more of the behavioral or social sciences equivalent to a major in the field.
Salary/Hours	$63,795 - $99,404, depending on geographic location and experience level
Address	Various positions available
Application Method	Online: https://apply.fbijobs.gov/
Opening Date	Immediately

To post a job opportunity or if your response to this job posting results in successful employment, please email the GCSW Office of Alumni and Career Services at mswjobs@central.uh.edu with the hiring details of your new job opportunity. Thank you.