

Job Title	Special Agent: Psychology/Counseling Expertise
Employer/ Agency	FBI
Job Description	Use your psychology background to become an FBI special agent! The transition from counseling to special agent is more than a career move—it's an opportunity to upskill and become an expert in your field. At the FBI, you won't just use your crisis intervention experience; you'll also build on it by working on cases that challenge you to think critically, adapt quickly, and collaborate with elite professionals tackling national security threats. Your ability to uncover crucial information, problem-solve, and apply your technical knowledge will help protect our nation from cyberattacks, terrorism, fraud, and evolving threats. With specialized training, real-world investigative experience, and access to cutting-edge technology, you'll refine your behavioral therapy and social services skills, enhance your expertise, and develop the foundation to become a leader in your field. The Bureau matches your dedication with a commitment to professional growth, a supportive work environment, and a robust benefits package that prioritizes you. Set yourself apart. Apply today. Plan and conduct investigations of potential violations of federal laws, cybersecurity, and public safety. Exercise judgment, resourcefulness, and versatility in meeting investigative demands. Create and maintain effective liaison relationships with federal, state, local, tribal, territorial, and international law enforcement agencies. Maintain a level of physical fitness to ensure the readiness required to perform law enforcement duties.
Qualifications	• Must be a U.S. citizen. • Must be able to obtain a Top Secret Sensitive Compartmented Information (SCI) Clearance. • Must be willing to travel as required. • Must meet the FBI's Employment Eligibility requirements. EDUCATION • Candidates must have a bachelor's degree or higher (preferably in psychology or related field such as social work or counseling) from a U.S. accredited college or university.
Salary/Hours	$103,236.00 - $133,200.00
Address	Remote, travel required
Application Method	Online: https://apply.fbijobs.gov/
Opening Date	Immediately

To post a job opportunity or if your response to this job posting results in successful employment, please email the GCSW Office of Alumni and Career Services at mswjobs@central.uh.edu with the hiring details of your new job opportunity. Thank you.