Employer/ Agency	Modern Therapy
Job Description	We're especially interested in clinicians who are skilled in or drawn to any of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Disorganized attachment (among other attachment styles) and complex relational dynamics</li><li>• OCD, perfectionism, and control-based coping patterns</li></ul> Our clients are often high-achieving with very sophisticated protectors (or managers to use IFS language). This work requires curiosity, patience, attunement, and a genuine respect for the layers beneath the surface. If you love helping clients move from old protective mechanisms that no longer serve them to awareness and connection, you'll feel right at home here. HERE'S A FEW HIGHLIGHTS FOR YOU: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• MT hires values-kindred people who are deeply committed to the craft for the sake of the precious client sitting across from them. We value growth, curiosity, and expanding ourselves always. This has led to such a talented team to be a part of!</li><li>• We have regular trainings and consults internally to help you grow even more</li><li>• We have a training stipend</li><li>• We are private pay only and our niche is high functioning professionals (rates range 200-248 per session)</li><li>• FT is 25 scheduled a week</li><li>• We offer healthcare</li><li>• We have a 401K match</li><li>• We have PTO</li></ul> As a practice, we work specifically with high-functioning individuals dealing with life, mostly in the form of anxiety, depression, work dissatisfaction, relationship problems, and adjustment concerns. The high-functioning population requires a high level of savvy attunement and self-awareness that differs from more obvious clinical presentations. We LOVE what we do as we get the honor of working with people who are "just good enough" to white knuckle it through the hard times. Our clients are the people that suffer in silence and dedicate themselves to continuous growth to make the most out of life. We help people deepen their understanding of self, cultivate greater satisfaction, heal old wounds, and live a life that feels full and meaning-filled. It's AWESOME. We shake up the narrative of therapy and flip antiquated notions on its head as we push new limits and inspire our communities to deepen, heal, and progress in their beautiful lives.

Our therapists are called to do this work as a vocation rather than a job. We want to see our clients succeed in all ways and we want to thrive along with them. We take pride in our clients knowing we truly care about their lives and have the know-how to understand their stories at a deep level. The foundation of this practice is Humanistic, meaning that we do not pathologize the human experience but rather aim to conceptualize our clients in a more holistic manner as we understand their way of being in the world.

Our therapists gain immense support in helping them attain the right client fit within Modern Therapy to bring the best therapeutic results. It's what transforms our clients' lives and keeps our therapists well-fed on meaning and effectiveness, resulting in a happy clinician with a caseload that lands because they were meant to be! We encourage creativity and foster the space for our clinicians to be their authentic selves in the workplace. Our team is composed of hands down, the most loving and inspiring people on the planet. We work like a boss, love our clients hard, and are supremely laid back and caring with one another on an interpersonal level. This is an amazing position for people who have big ambition to make an impact but would rather make a larger scale difference as a part of a team than do it on their own.
