| Job Title        | Social Work Fellow   |
| Employer/ Agency | The Menninger Clinic   |
| Job Description  | Perform group, individual and family therapy all while being a part of an interdisciplinary team. The fellowship also includes continued didactic learning from leaders in mental health and therapy.  |
| Qualifications   | Postgraduate Fellowship in Clinical Social Work The fellowship places a high priority on developing practitioners with a strong foundation in theory; a capacity to be reflective regarding their own values and use of self; and a capacity to assess the strengths and limitations of theoretical frameworks in the treatment process. Training occurs through course work, clinical care and intensive supervision. Trainees also focus on careful and thorough diagnosis and a compassionate, patient-centered approach to working with patients at The Menninger Clinic. Fellowships are available in Menninger's inpatient and outpatient programs. Fellows participate as members of interdisciplinary treatment teams and work directly with patients and their families. Fellows integrate diagnostic formulations into treatment planning, team collaboration, and clinical practice. Fellows conduct group, individual, and family therapy sessions and are involved in advanced case management. Each week fellows participate in approximately 10 hours of individual supervision, group supervision, and didactic seminars. Didactic seminar topics include family therapy, individual therapy case conference, group facilitation, psychodynamic psychotherapy, a support group, and a seminar with rotating topics presented by staff members in different areas of clinical specialty. Fellows also attend a psychodynamic psychotherapy seminar with a cohort of psychiatry residents at Baylor College of Medicine |
